Cordially invites you to a

Video Conference

with

The Moscow Institute for International Economic Relations

Hosted by the Russian Cultural Center

In the first meeting of what we hope will become a series of videoconferences between U.S. and Russian universities, Georgetown students have an opportunity to converse with their Moscow counterparts about US-Russia relations, politics and economics, in the Russian and English languages. Participants will include Fulbright scholars from several countries and researchers from the Kennan Institute at the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars.

Conference Moderators:

Dr. Angela Stent, Director of CERES, Georgetown University

Dr. Vladimir N. Kostornichenko, Moscow Institute for International Economic Relations

Dr. Alexander Iu. Petrov, Russian Academy of Science, Kennan Institute

Where: Russian Cultural Center, 1825 Phelps Place NW, Washington D.C.

When: Tuesday, February 19, 2008, 11 a.m.

Seats are limited.
